

Interdisciplinary Minor in Environmental Studies 2025-26
(18 Total Credit Hours)

Student Name: _____

Student ID: _____

Student Major: _____

The interdisciplinary minor in Environmental Studies is 6 courses (18 credit hours) as follows:

- 2 required courses (6 credit hours):
 - ENVS-101: Living Green
 - HUM/LS/SS-101: Humans and the Environment: Disciplinary Perspectives
- choice of 4 courses (12 credit hours):
 - ART-285: Mindful Practice
 - ARTH-265: History of Landscape Painting
 - BA-205: People, Planet, and Profit
 - BIO 359: Environmental Studies
 - ENG-383: Themes in Literature when focused on the environment
 - PHIL-160: Environmental Ethics
 - PHSC-102: Fundamentals of Earth Science
 - PSY-321: Environmental Psychology
 - RS-301: Special Topics in Religious Studies when focused on the environment

Transferred courses (not to exceed nine credit hours), other courses that currently are not offered but may be in the future, such as Ecology (BIO 426), or courses taken through study abroad programs such as CCSA or KIIS, may count toward the minor as determined by the Director of the Environmental Studies minor.